CRUTCHER & STARKS!

Frankfort and Louisville.

The Connecting Link.

The Street Railway Company commenced work Tuesday afternoon putting down ties on Ann street from Broadway to Mero, preparatory to laying the rails connecting the older portion of the road on the north side with the new, and now have the work of track-laying about complete. All the poles are up and the next move will be to stretch the wires. They will have plenty of time in which to get their machinery set at the power house and order their cars before the new bridge is up, as they do not expect to commence operating the line until then.

Making Office Rooms.

Mr. Jerome Weitzel has had the ground between the ladies' entrance to the Capital Hotel and the corner of Main and Ann taken away from the side of the hotel for several feet, built a retaining wall next to the sidewalk, which will be capped with an iron railing. He will then cut down the windows of the old billiard saloon and turn it into office rooms, which will be quite an improvement.

Far and Wide.

Not on this broad continent alone, but in malarial breeding tropical regions, in Guatemala, Mexico, South America, the Isthmus of Panama and elsewhere, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters affords to inhabitants and sojourners protection against malaria. The miner, the freshly arrived immigrant, the tiller of the virgin soil newly robbed of its forest by the axe of the pioneer, find in the superb anti-febrile specific a preserver against the poisonous miasma which in vast districts rich in natural resources, is yet fertile in diseases. It annihilates disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, fortifies those who use it against rheumatic ailments breed and fostered by outdoor exposure; infuses genial warmth into a frame chilled by rigorous temperature, and robs of their power to harm morning and evening mists and vapors laden with hurtfulness; strengthens the weak and conquers incipient kidney trouble.

Honeysuckle.

Rabbits are ripe and hickory-nuts and walnuts plentiful.

Miss Alice Brawner is visiting her cousin, Miss Bettie Brawner, at Bagdad. She will return home Monday.

Preaching at Harvieland the fourth Sunday at 11 o'clock by Rev. Garrett Reed.

We are glad that Mr. Edwin Penn reports a good time at Chicago, and sorry to say that Capt. J. M. Brooks is still on the old bachelor list. He ought to be a candidate.

Mrs. Margaret Smith is improving slowly.

Mr. Morgan Penn and Miss Minnie Ellis were united in marriage November 9th.

Mr. Charles Marshall has gotten his blacksmith shop in running order again.

Mr. Willie Penn was "dead in it" last Sunday.

To California, The Land of Sunshine, Fruit And Flowers.

The Midwinter Exposition already much talked of, bids fair to rival the great fair that has just closed at Chicago—not in size, perhaps; but certainly so in originality, in richness and in delighted visitors, who will unanimously agree that the Pacific Coast is worth many times the time and money spent to visit it, in its return of delightful climate, mellow sun-light, wondrous growth of vegetation, and the heretofore unheard-of not work of industries connected with fruit raising, and the shipping of the product.

The Queen & Crescent Route is the desirable line to and from California, as the first step to this end, California rates have been reduced, and every one may find the cost of such a trip within his means.

As for equipment, it is the only line by which you can travel from Cincinnati to San Francisco, absolutely without change.
